

CHAPTER cxxiii.

An Act for incorporating the Crawley and District Water Company and empowering them to construct works and supply water and for other purposes. [25th July 1898.] A.D. 1898.

WHEREAS the parishes and parts of parishes and places in the county of Sussex in this Act mentioned are at present inadequately supplied with water and it is expedient that provision should be made for affording an adequate supply of pure and wholesome water thereto :

And whereas the persons in that behalf in this Act named with others are willing on being incorporated into a company with the necessary powers for such purpose to undertake to supply water to such parishes and parts of parishes and places and it is expedient that they should be incorporated accordingly and authorised to construct waterworks as by this Act provided and that such other powers as are in this Act contained should be conferred on them for the better and more effectually carrying the purposes of this Act into effect :

And whereas plans and sections showing the lines situations and levels of the works authorised by this Act and also a book of reference to the plans containing the names of the owners and lessees or reputed owners and lessees and of the occupiers of the lands required or which may be taken for the purposes or under the powers of this Act were duly deposited with the clerk of the peace for the county of Sussex and are herein-after respectively referred to as the deposited plans sections and book of reference :

And whereas the objects of this Act cannot be effected without the authority of Parliament :

May it therefore please Your Majesty that it may be enacted and be it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty by and with
